

INDOOR RANGE RULES

1. All firearms must be cased to enter the store and range.
2. All firearms are to remain in the shooters stall and pointed down range with chambers open when the firearm is not in use. Fred's has provided storage for participants with multiple firearms.
3. The stall is to be uncluttered.
4. No more than two participants per stall. Fred's has provided a viewing area in which friends/ relatives can observe.
5. No one under the age of 21, unless accompanied by a parent/guardian while firing a handgun. No one under the age of 18 while firing a long gun. (Hang your targets appropriately! A child cannot shoot at a target hung at an adult height and vise-versa)
6. Rounds shot into the ceiling, floor and walls will not be tolerated. (Improper target height. Even though you are hitting the bull's-eye at close range, as the projectile continues down range it may be too high/ low. PAY ATTENTION)
7. Dress code: NO high heels, NO low cut blouses, T-shirts are permitted (collared shirts must be buttoned up), NO loose or baggy clothing.
8. Must watch the NSSF Range Etiquette video and receive certificate (see link to video above). Viewing can be completed at home or on premise.
9. Cross lane firing is not permitted.
10. Participant's firearms and gear are subject to inspection
11. Eye and ear protection is to be worn at all times. These products will be made available on site. Use of your personal eye and ear protection is allowed and subject to inspection. Anyone who compromises this will be asked to leave. Monthly/Annual members will have their fees prorated and refunded.
12. Outside ammo is allowed and subject to inspection at our discretion.
